

Drawing, Intro to (Nelson)

This course, designed for students with little or no formal training in drawing, will focus on the traditional techniques of draftsmanship. Projects include working with graphite, charcoal, pastels, and colored pencils. Emphasis is on the process of making art rather than on the final product; students will push their boundaries and work outside of their comfort zones.